WINE TO WATER

For the first time in Australia, your purchase of a bottle of Little Ripples, will provide 1 year of clean water to 1 person in a developing country. Wine goes hand in hand with storytelling, and Little Ripples has its own unique story. The concept is called "Wine to Water" and is about giving back. Water is the essence of all life and giving people access to clean water can have huge benefits across health, education and a whole range of social issues..

SHIRAZ 2018

Region: Adelaide Hills, SA

Alcohol: 14.5%

Vegan: Yes

Notes: Hailing from the gentle folds of the Adelaide Hills, this year's Shiraz brings with it a signature style of cool, red-berry fruit with great length and a smooth, coffee-cream finish. Adelaide Hills is an exciting Australian wine region with a diversity of soils and aspects, and a network of small towns and villages. Delicious cool climate expressions of classic Australian varieties have been joined by boundary-pushing winemakers exploring alternative varieties and minimal intervention winemaking, marking the region as one to watch by some of the world's leading wine critics.

REAL CHANGE BOTTLE BY BOTTLE

A young girl with a joyful expression stands in front of a public water pump. She is holding a yellow sign with handwritten text. The sign reads: "Your bottle of wine gave me this water. Thank you so much." The background shows a building and other children, suggesting a community setting.
