

TURNER STILLHOUSE

TASMANIAN CRAFT SPIRITS

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Turner Stillhouse is a Tasmanian craft spirits distillery founded in 2018 and located in the iconic Tamar Valley (15 min. from Launceston), with an additional office in Melbourne. The Company's flagship product, Three Cuts Gin, is multi-award winning (internationally) and the Company is one of the larger distilleries by volume in Tasmania.

The Company's Founder and CEO, Justin Turner, is an American (former NYC finance executive) with California family winery heritage. He is married to a Tasmanian and lives in TAS. John Murphy, former CEO of CUB, CCA, VISY, and other firms, actively assists with the Company's national efforts.
